Hughes Federal Credit Union Opens Marana Branch

Celebrates International Credit Union Day with Ribbon Cutting Ceremony!

Tucson, Ariz. – Hughes Federal Credit Union announces the opening of a new branch located at 7820 N. Cortaro Road, Marana, Ariz. The official ribbon cutting ceremony will coincide with International Credit Union Day, Thursday, October 15. The event will also be recognized in other Hughes branches with light refreshments, a small gift and information on the benefits of choosing a credit union.

In addition to the ribbon cutting, Hughes will host a weekend of grand opening activities. The public is invited to attend the Marana Branch Grand Opening Celebration, October 16 & 17 to enjoy prizes and giveaways, free gifts for new kids' accounts and an opportunity to enter monthly drawings to win. See HughesFCU.org/GrandOpening for details.

"We couldn't think of a better way to celebrate International Credit Union Day than with the ribbon cutting ceremony at our newest location," said John Sansbury, Hughes chairman of the board. "We are growing to serve our members where they work and live by opening a branch in Marana. Hughes is a community-focused credit union and Marana is a community-focused town. It's a perfect match and while we've been involved and invested in the Town of Marana for years through sponsorships and Chamber of Commerce and other affiliations, we are delighted to be an official member of their community."

International Credit Union Day is an annual event that commemorates the credit union movement's impact and achievements. Credit Unions are not-for-profit financial cooperatives that provide an effective and viable alternative to the for-profit financial institutions for more than 217 million members in the 105 countries worldwide.

Credit Unions are recognized as a force for positive economic and social change, and have provided significant value in both developing and emerging nations. Each year this international event affords the opportunity to remember credit unions' proud history and promote awareness and support for the credit union difference. This year's theme, "People Helping People®," embraces the longstanding credit union philosophy.
