Tucson, AZ – August 23, 2016 – Hughes Federal Credit Union has now added Android Pay™ and Samsung Pay™ to its Digital Wallet offerings. The new options join Apple Pay®, and the credit union's exclusive University of Arizona® Visa® debit cards, on a list of products and services available to its 100,000-plus member-owners. There is no charge for Digital Wallet services or UA™-themed debit cards.

"The two new options add to our wide range of digital services that include Mobile Banking, Mobile Deposit and Mobile Bill Pay," said Robert J. Swick, Hughes Federal Credit Union President/General Manager. "Members can truly bank anywhere, anytime, and now have more options for using their device directly to purchase in-store or through the mobile app."

All digital pay options include the same benefits as credit and debit cards, such as Visa Zero Liability and Visa Merchant offers, Swick added.
